

Lincoln Gallery News

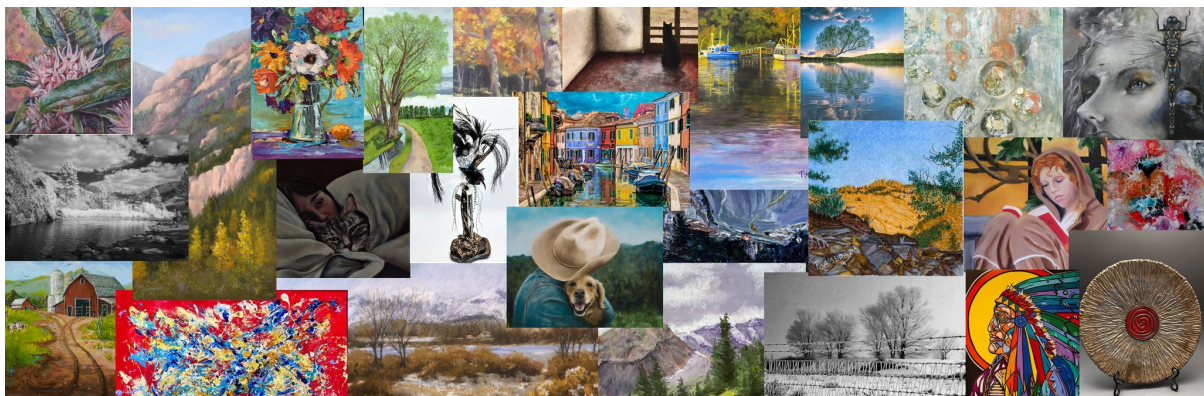

Dear First name / friend ,

February is all about love in the Sweetheart City. At the gallery, we're showing love for our members with the All Member Art Show. We will showcase artworks by our basic members as well as our exhibiting members. Don't miss this one - you'll want to see this collection of nearly 100 works of art while it's up in the gallery.

We also have three members sharing their knowledge in February with classes and workshops. Get signed up for these right away.

Thank you, again, for your support of Lincoln Gallery and Thompson Valley Art League. This is going to be an exciting year and we're just getting started!

Art in the Park
August 12 & 13, 2023

The Lincoln Gallery and the Thompson Valley Art League invite you to show at Art in the Park. This year we've added a FINE ART GALLERY north of our traditional ARTISAN MARKET.

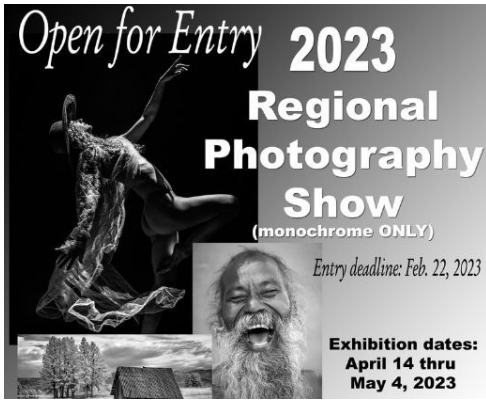

The Gallery will be heavily juried to ensure exceptional art and a refined viewing experience.

Our Artisan Market will continue to bring exciting art and fun crafts, as well as regionally made culinary treats, to attendees.

February Member Meeting: How to Critique Your Art

Seeing your art with a analytical eye can be useful for improving your work and growing as an artist. Critiquing isn't criticizing. Join us for our February meeting where we'll discuss what is helpful when critiquing art - and what is not. After the talk, we'll break into groups and practice critiquing since member art is on the walls. We'll also have more information about upcoming critique sessions that will be offered as a member benefit.

Thursday, February 16

6:30 to 8 p.m.

Lincoln Gallery

Zoom link will be provided to members prior to the meeting.

Did you know?

You don't have to be an artist to be a member of Thompson Valley Art League. We have a number of levels that are appropriate for people who want to be involved and support our mission of strengthening the region's art community.
